
2024 Annual Report of the Parliamentary Control of the Administration¹

Summary

of 23 January 2025

Overview of the PCA's activities in 2024

In 2024, the Parliamentary Control of the Administration (PCA) was involved with six evaluations, and submitted proposals for evaluations to the Control Committees of the Federal Assembly (CCs) for their 2025 annual programme.

Ongoing evaluations

In 2024 the PCA completed two evaluations, which are currently being addressed by the CCs:

- Allocation of asylum seekers to the cantons (Section 2.1)
- Military service with restrictions (Section 2.2)

The following four evaluations were ongoing at the end of 2024:

- System of part-time judges (Section 2.3)
- Honorary consulates (Section 2.4)
- Rail infrastructure project planning (Section 2.5)
- Price supervision independence and monitoring (Section 2.6)

New evaluations in 2025

When adopting their annual programme on 23 January 2025, the CCs commissioned the PCA to carry out the following three new evaluations (Chapter 3):

- Suva accident insurance: federal government oversight
- Teleworking in federal government
- Preventing human trafficking
